

WHICH IS BETTER?

Which is Better? Put a Check by your answer.

1. A God who saves:
 - some
 - many
 - all
2. A God who:
 - annihilates some people
 - punishes some people
 - restores all people to him
3. A God whose will is:
 - limited
 - unlimited
4. A God whose power is:
 - limited
 - unlimited
5. A God whose love is:
 - limited
 - unlimited
6. A God whose wrath is:
 - unlimited
 - limited
7. A God whose compassion is:
 - limited
 - unlimited
8. A God who has reconciled:
 - some
 - many
 - all
9. A God who:
 - does impute sin
 - does not impute sin

10. A God who:
 - hates his enemies
 - loves his enemies
11. A God who has a
 - physical Hell
 - spiritual Hell
12. A God who has created an endless:
 - Hell
 - Hope
13. A God who depends on:
 - my faith
 - His faith
14. A God whose mercy is:
 - limited
 - unlimited
15. A God whose grace
 - limited
 - unlimited
16. A God who includes
 - some
 - many
 - all
17. A God who
 - is limited by man's will
 - has absolute sovereignty

WHICH IS BEST?

Depending on how you answered these questions, you end up with an image of God that is either limited or unlimited.

Which is best:

- a limited God
- an unlimited God?

What do you choose to believe about God?

- God is limited.
- God is unlimited.

Which do you think God would prefer?
Which would be more honoring to God?

BELIEVE THE BEST

If you prefer the best wouldn't you think that God would also?

Reason concludes that God prefers the best. Science demonstrates that God prefers the best. Ethics requires that God prefers the best. The Bible declares God to prefer the best.

For God to prefer the best He would use all things He has made in His Wisdom. God's best would bring all creation to a desired end or goal accomplishing His purpose.

Doesn't this bring peace of mind, harmony, health, happiness, joy and satisfaction with no condemnation?

He corrects and caresses us into His image. In this "best" view of God, there are no worries, threats, or fears. His generosity is for all and to all. The God of all creation is all knowledge, is everywhere, and all powerful. His Plan, Purpose and Pleasure shall be done.

Wouldn't you think and know that this is better than a limited God?

Wouldn't you prefer this better understanding of God than any of a lesser power, knowledge or will? Truth makes all people free.

Join with these concepts of God by asking others these questions. This will challenge their thinking and understanding of The Almighty God.

Then the world within and around us and all its people will live better lives.

Our view of God determines how we live our lives. Our view of God determines how we treat other people, as individuals or as groups.

Let us give God our best! After all, He has given us His Best!

Dr. Harold Lovelace Ministries
Spiritual Development Fellowship
P.O. Box 995
Saraland, AL 36571-0995 USA

Visit Us on the Web: www.http://sigler.org/lovelace
or E-mail us: GodAllinAll@juno.com

WHICH IS BETTER?
